Campbell Gets Federal Aid For Master Plan

The City of Campbell this week received a Christmas present in the form of approval by the Local Planning Committee of the State Department of Finance for an outright grant of $3,750 to complete its master plan program. The City Council has already budgeted a like sum to cover the total project cost of $7,500.

With only $9,737 remaining of a total of $577,500 originally available to the State of California, the City of Campbell became about the last city to obtain money from the fund.

Kenneth May, chairman of the seven man committee, who is also a supervisor from Kern County, questioned Nestor Barrett, Campbell Planning Consultant who represented the City at the hearing last Friday, at some length about the project.

At the conclusiion of the hearing May said "I think that this city, considering its size and financial status is to be greatly congratulated for undertaking this complete planning program."

Elton Andrews, director of the Local Planning Office, said that the money would probably not be available until after the beginning of the fourth quarter, which is April 1. The funds for the past three quarters have been exhausted and the balance available cannot be drawn on until the final quarter of the fiscal year.

The Federal Grant must be matched by an equal amount by the City of Campbell. During the last budget session the City Council provided for its portion of the fund and at its meeting on December 2 adopted resolutions requesting the planning assistance from the State and Federal Government.

This action followed an emergency meeting of the City Planning Commission which was held on Thanksgiving Eve, because word had been received that funds were nearly exhausted.

In approving the project the Department of Finance also added Barrett's name to the official list of planning consultants qualified to make contracts with the State and Federal Government for planning work. This is because the Campbell application is the first one which Barrett has submitted to the agency.

Barrett said that he does not expect the work will get underway much before July 1. Even though the Federal funds become available April 1, the amount of paper work necessary to get the final contracts prepared and approved by the three governmental agencies has usually been found to consume a three month period.

Decorated Yards Brighten Campbell During Yuletime

By John D. Blaine

Over the 70 years that I have been a resident of Campbell, from 1887 to 1957, I have seen many an interesting Christmas, but never before such as this. The decoration contest has made this Christmas truly unique.

And the contest itself has been unique among contests. If in a contest you write an essay or suggest a name nobody is apt to know what you thought of unless you win. In this contest the efforts have been in the open for all to see, regardless of who won.

In the judging to drive around and enjoy the displays one by one has made Campbell appear a sort of fairy land. And the countless displays not entered have also contributed to the general beauty of the scene.

Not Easy Job

Selecting winners has not been easy. For instance, a large display has naturally been outstanding. Yet to choose on the basis of size was plainly unfair to those who had smaller space and depended more upon thought and originality.

Again, what is Christmas for? It celebrates the birth of Christ, yes, but who was this person Santa Claus? Over the years I should have learned much about Santa Claus, but I hadn't. To find out about the origin of Santa Claus I almost drove myself to a high fever.

Perhaps I should have taken Santa Claus for granted just as

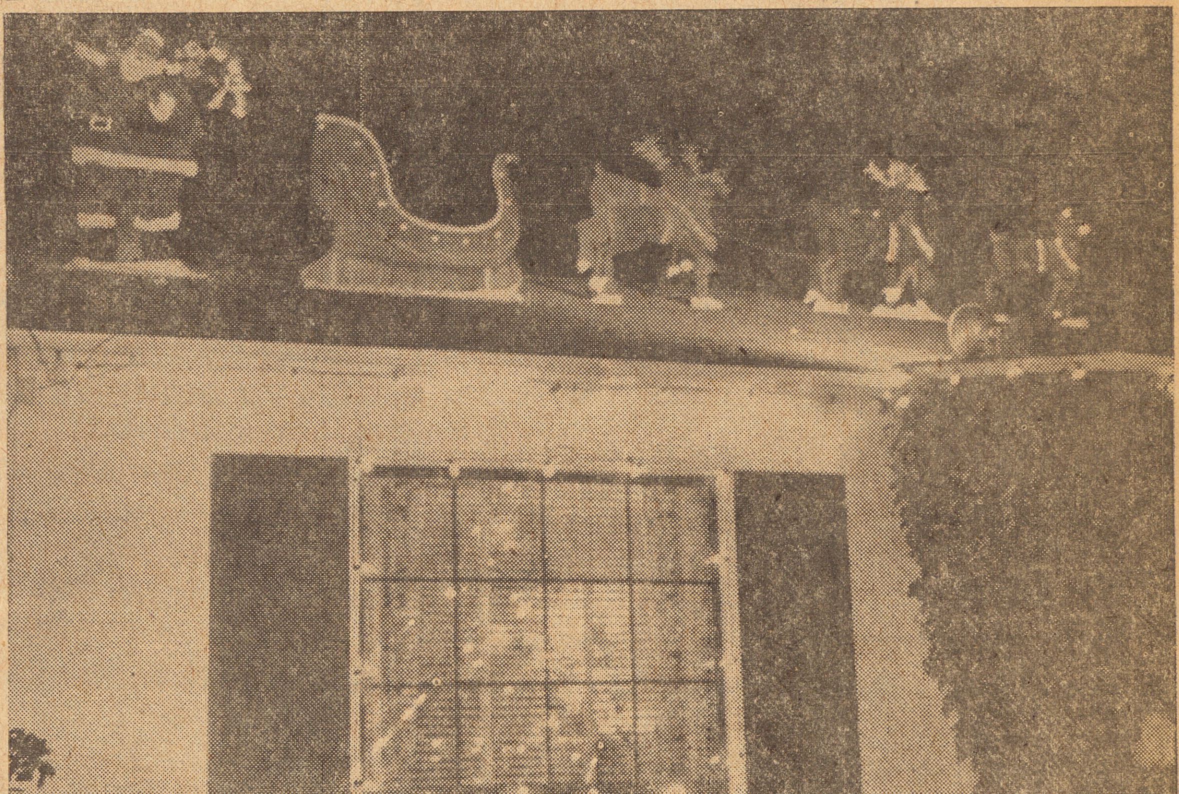
SANTA PLAYS THE ORGAN . . . One of the most unique displays entered in the contest was that of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Cone, 834 Lovell. One could almost hear the organ thunder in this realistic display.

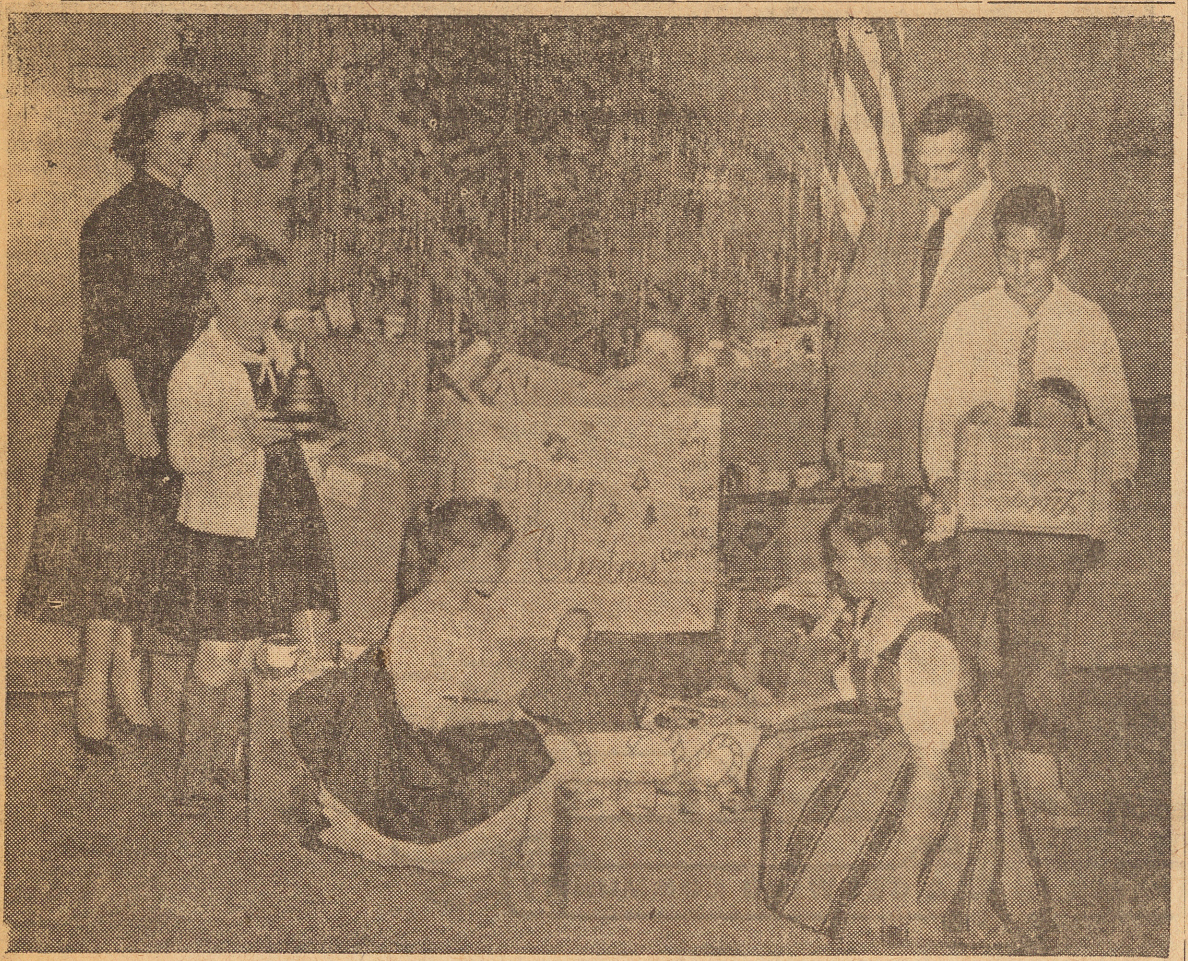
SANTA AND HIS SLEIGH . . . Mr. and Mrs. William McLachlan, 51 Alice Ave., put Santa on their lawn in another attractive Yuletime display.

CHRISTMAS DOORMAN . . . Santa acts as a doorman in this very attractive and well lighted display of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benevento, 113 N. Second St.

SANTA WELCOMES VISITORS . . . This display of Santa made by Sharron Gammon, teenage daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gammon, 56 S. First St., rated high with the judges because it was made entirely by Sharron.



RUDOLPH'S RED NOSE KEEPS FLASHING . . From the roof of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McVea, 278 W. Campbell Ave., Santa and his reindeer prepare to take off on their rounds. Rated high by the judges, this display was made completely by Mr. and Mrs. McVea.



TEACHING IT'S BETTER TO GIVE THAN RECEIVE . . . Four schools in the Campbell district, Hamilton, Cherry Lane, Parkway and Monroe in the true Christmas spirit assembled gift boxes of toys and foodstuffs to be distributed to the needy through the cooperation of local service clubs this Christmas instead of exchanging gifts at school. Many of the classrooms at close of school Friday turned over their trees to service clubs for distribution along with the food and toy boxes. In the above picture Miss Joan Dilbeck (left) kindergarten teacher at Hamilton and Wayne Fontes, principal (far right) check some of the boxes gathered at Hamilton. From the left are Patty Mosher and Linda Gomes, 1st grade and Margaret Stout and Frank Maratti. 5th grade.

Christmas Themes Rotary Meeting

A series of Christmas readings in a humorous vein by Lee Divin of San Jose State College provided the program for the Monday luncheon meeting of Rotary. Chairman of the day was Jack Hughes.

Norman Stoner, chairman, reported the annual Christmas party and dinner at Rosemary School December 16 was a huge success and the kiddies were thrilled with the magic show and by Santa Claus (Paul Straub) who distributed gifts.

Neal Royer, president, informed members that the club had slipped to 36th place in attendance and an effort would be made to raise the average which is now in the low 80's.

"Boom" Continues

November Building Permits Here Maintain Record-Breaking Pace

Building permits for three apartment buildings totalling more than $100,000 boosted the total of permits issued in Campbell in November to a record $198,943.

The figure was indicative of the continuing "boom" that has swelled construction totals to record amounts here this year. The November total was over $200,000 more than October figure although the winter months normally show a decline in construction.

Only one permit for a commercial structure was issued. It went to James DeMaria for a $15,000 store building at 401 E. Campbell Avenue.

Largest permit issued went to Ross Owens for a $60,072 nine-unit apartment at 430 N. Dunster Dr.

Two other apartment permits both totalling $28,800 went to Charles J. Busack and Son and A. M. Neufeld both on N. Dunster Drive.

Permits for five dwellings were issued durnig the month with the largest going to Richard G. Woosley for a $17,000 home at 911 N. Monica Lane.

Blossom Builders were issued a permit for a $15,000 dwelling at 891 N. Monica Lane, while Dura Style Homes received permits for two $10,000 dwellings on N. Branbury Drive. Angelo Messina also received a permit for a $5000-class dwelling at 540 W. Latimer Avenue.

Other permits for additions and smaller structures were issued to Western Gravel, 450 S. Railway, office addition, $1008; Gerald Curdis, 639 E. Hawthorne, additional bedroom, $1,872; George Green, 87 N. Milton Avenue, additional bedroom and bath, $1,200; and R & W Floor Covering, 750 S. Winchester, office and storage, $1,000.

Permits for signs were issued to General Petroleum, 152 S. Railway, and 510 N. Winchester for three signs totalling $650; Ainsley Corp., E. Campbell avenue, for a neon sign, $495; Stone and Schultz, E. Hamilton avenue, for four signs totalling $550 and Lassley's TV, 375 E. Campbell, sign, $200.

Other permits issued went to Mrs. David Burr, 1235 E. Ridgeley, solid roof patio, $560; L. Hall, 292 N. Esther Ave., garage conversion, $400.; B. L. Legg, 81 E. Alice Ave., fireplace, $495; and E. F. Jacobson, 245 W. Ken Circle, garage conversion $540.

children do. Once begun on the project of learning more about Santa Claus, however, I didn't want to stop defeated. After maybe an hour of looking into reference books I found right at hand in a desk dictionary this:

"Saint Nicholas. A bishop of Myra, Asia Minor (d ?345). He is the patron saint of Russia, and of mariners, and children. As the bearer of presents to children on Christmas Eve his name has been corrupted to Santa Claus."

As ordinarily seen in Christmas decorations he certainly hasn't looked much like a bishop. Over the years as I have seen him he hasn't looked like a bishop or acted like one. Well, he has behaved as the majority of children have wanted him to. And I speak of him only for a certain reason.

The Winners

Among the decorations was one nativity scene. It is pictured on this page. You can see how good it was. And since it was both good and in a class by itself it was given one of the prizes. No display could go more directly to the heart of the Christmas meaning.

The other winning display was topped by the words, PEACE ON EARTH. These words bring to mind an incident of World War I. The opposing armies had been deadlocked in the deep trenches. On a Christmas in a certain sector all hostilities ceased for the day and the opposing soldiers fraternized back and forth—for that day only. On no other day could this voluntary peace have been attained.

We had already decided to give this dispay a prize before we noticed PEACE ON EARTH upon the roof. Because of the appropriate meaning the award was all the more fitting.

In the picture of this display you will observe in a window a small Christmas tree. This tree was decorated with imitation snow. Many Christmas trees were lighted, but only this tree was heavily decorated with imitation snow. Since a distinguishing tree was one of the conditions for one prize, this tree helped a winner.

Driving around looking for the various addresses helped us to realize what a sizeable area Campbell and its immediate environs has become. Many times the writer was lost. He likes to be lost briefly. The great Einstin once wrote, "The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science." He had in mind precisely research, which in a sense was our own project. And thus in a way we had the beautiful experience he suggested.

The night was just right, blacker than black. The man in the moon kindly hid his face and didn't compete in any way with the lovely displays.

Route of Travel

One by one with help of our Chamber of Commerce map we found them all. We had taken a list of the entries and routed them so as to make finding them fairly convenient, using in our routing only the family names for condensation.

There were Hannah, 138 East Campbell Avenue; Gammon, 56 South First Street; Giacomazzi, 651 North Central, Dufur, 560 North Harrison; Guilbert, 110 West Latimer; Wells, 193 West Rex Circle; Cahill, 113 North Lewellyn Avenue; McVea, 278 West Campbell Avenue; Pasternak, 273 Beverly Court; McDonald, 879 Century Court; Coonn, 834 Lovell; McLachlin, 51 Alice Avenue; Goodwin, 139 Hardy Avenue; Benevento, 113 North Second; and Cook, 236 Marianna Way.

Carlyn Avenue and North Central contributed streets with many small lighted trees. And small lighted trees were to be seen in our town and its environs here and there almost everywhere. To add were decorated windows innumerable. And thus the decorations taken as whole truly created a sort of beautiful fairy land, as we suggested near the first.

Perhaps the decorations will most of them be maintained through the holidays. If so, there will be an opportunity to drive around and enjoy them. They can be found at the addresses we have given.

But sometimes the finding will not be easy. For instance, how do we find 560 North Harrison? This street begins at Campbell Avenue and seems to end at Hamilton Avenue. But it doesn't. It jumps a short block and then comes to earth, or pavement, in an attractive new subdivision.

This new subdivision can be reached by way of Central. We turn east at the first corner north of Hamilton, and we arrive at an elbow. And there on the east side of new North Harrison is 560.

Largest Display

The largest display of decorations we found at 193 West Rex Circle. This display was truly gorgeous. It was edged out for one of the prizes by the unique nativity scene at 243 Beverly Court. But if this display is continued it is worth going far to see. West Rex Circle is in a new subdivision west of Lee Brothers and the other shops giving the prizes.

At 834 Lovell Avenue Santa was seated at a large pipe organ. We can imagine his putting into grand music praises of the entire Christmas decoration effort.

"HERE IS A MAN"

Here is a man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty, and then for three years was an itinerant preacher.

He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put his foot inside a big city. He never travelled two hundred miles from the place where he was born. He never did one of the things which usually accompany greatness.

He had no credentials but Himself. He had nothing to do with this world except the naked power of His Divine manhood. While still a young man the tide of public opinion turned against Him. His friends ran He was turned over to His enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. away. One of them denied Him.

He was nailed upon a cross between two thieves. His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth, while He was dying, and that was His coat. When He was dead, He was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through pity of a friend.

Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone, and today He is the centerpiece of the human race and the leader of the column of progress.

I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that have ever marched, and all the navies that were ever built, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man upon this earth as powerfully as has that One solitary life!

County Property Tax Levy Hits $15,083,149

Key figure behind the $15,083,149 county property tax levy for Santa Clara county this year is the $37,864,832 budgeted by the county for 1957-58, S. J. Arnold, general manager of California Taxpayers' association, reports, making public the statewide organization's study of property taxes for county government purposes.

The 1957-58 budget for the county is 13 percent greater than the $33,531,380 county budget for 1956-57, Arnold said.

After all subventions and grants, fines and fees, and carry-over surpluses, delinquency allowances, and balances, etc., are subtracted, the 1957-58 county budget called for the 1957-58 property tax levy for the county of $15,083,149, which was 13 per cent greater than the $13,364,380 levy for 1956-57.

Assessed value of taxable property in the county reached $854,691,660 for the current year, 14 per cent greater than the $749,190,970 for last year.

Mass Today for Dr Edwin Oster

Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. today, December 26, at St. Lucy's Catholic Church for Dr. Edwin A. Oster, 34, who passed away at his home Friday night, apparently from a heart attack. Burial will be in Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery.

Dr. Oster had maintained an office in the Cambrian Park Medical Center for the past five years and resided at 616 Sweetbriar Drive with his wife and seven children. A native of North Dakota, he was graduated from the University of North Dakota and the University of Illinois Medical School.

He was a member of the Campbell Lions Club, Santa Clara County Medical Society, the American Academy of Sciences, and Phi Eta Sigma honorary society.

He leaves his wife, Katherine; seven children, Mary, David, Ronnie, Susan, Edwin, Elizabeth, and Steven; his mother, Mrs. Regina Oster of Campbell; and six brothers and sister in North Dakota and Washington.

Egg Nog In Holiday Mood!

GAY and festive, egg nog fits into all the parties of the holiday season. The traditional drink, available in the market ready to use from Thanksgiving through New Year's makes entertaining easy. Serve it just as it comes from the carton in a bowl or pitcher, garnished with whipped cream or scoops of ice cream.

Egg nog is a luscious ingredient too for many unusual holiday dessert dishes. Egg Nog Cheese Cake with Cranberry Topping is a delicious version of the classic cheese cake, created by Sealtest Kitchens. Here's how to make it:

Egg Nog Cheese Cake With Cranberry Topping

Crust:
1 cup zwieback crumbs
2 tbsp. sugar
½ tsp. ground nutmeg
2 tbsp. melted butter

Filling:
3 cups creamed cottage cheese
1 cup sugar
⅓ cup flour
¼ tsp. salt
4 eggs, separated
½ tsp. ground nutmeg
½ tsp. vanilla
½ tsp. rum flavoring
1 cup Egg Nog
2 cups Cranberry Glaze, recipe below

Crust: Combine crumbs, 2 tbsp. of sugar, and ½ tsp. ground nutmeg with melted butter; press firmly onto the bottom of a 9" spring form pan. Bake in a moderate oven 325°, 10 min. Cool.

Filling: Beat cheese slightly — just enough to break curds. Blend in ½ cup of sugar, flour, and salt. Add unbeaten egg yolks, ½ tsp. nutmeg, vanilla and rum flavoring. Stir in Egg Nog. Beat the mixture vigorously until quite smooth — about 10 min.

Beat egg whites until foamy. Add remaining ½ cup of sugar a tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until mixture forms moist, shiny peaks. Fold into cheese-Nog mixture. Gently pour the mixture over the crumb crust. Bake in moderate oven, 325°, 1 hr. 20 min. Remove from oven and cool on rack. Cover top of cake with cooled Cranberry Glaze. Chill thoroughly in refrigerator. One 9" cake. 12 servings.

CRANBERRY GLAZE: Mix together in heavy saucepan, ¾ cup sugar and 4 tsp. cornstarch. Add ¾ cup cold water. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and clears. Boil mixture 5 min. longer, stirring occasionally. Add 2 cups washed, drained, fresh whole cranberries. Cook 5 min. more, stirring occasionally. Cool. 2 cups glaze. FNS

School Districts Pay Back Loans

Campbell Cambrian and Moreland elementary school districts are among the 12 school districts of Santa Clara County that will repay the State $540,899.97 borrowed under the State School Building Program of 1949. An additional $64,630.76 will be repaid by county schools under the 1952 act.

Robert C. Kirkwood, state controller, reported that during the 1957-58 fiscal year, 333 school districts will repay the State a total of $9,503,580 under the 1949 act and 276 districts will pay back $2,175,634 on loans made under the 1952 act.

The total repayment to be collected during the current school year amounts to $11,679,214, an increase of 25.2 per cent over the 1956-57 fiscal year. Repayment computations are made each year by the state controller for all school districts which have an unpaid balance on final state building apportionments granted during any preceding year.

According to Kirkwood, each school district taking part in the program repays the State according to its ability to pay rather than on the size of the loan.

Campbell will repay $106,168.38, Cambrian $33,700.60 and Moreland $25,184.46.

Law Obedience Stops Accidents, Asserts Patrol

There is no substitute for traffic law obedience as an effective accident preventative says the California Highway Patrol.

"Analyses of traffic accident statistics prove beyond doubt that violations of the vehicle code are the leading contributing factors in about 90% of all traffic accidents," stated Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "Drivers who realize this and drive accordingly, obeying the rules, seldom get into accident trouble.

Season's Greetings

This is the time of year when sweetness and light are paramount issues and when hope for better things and appreciation of what we have make an entangling alliance.

This is the time of year in which forgiving and forgetting take prominent positions in almost everyone's thinking and petty grievances somehow don't seem as important when compared to the "big picture."

This is the time of year to pause and reflect.

The mad rush of Christmas time is over and now as one peruses the Yuletime messages that have been received, making a mental note that you are not going to wait until next Christmas to contact your friends but will try to see them or write to them during the coming year, one realizes more and more how important the season is to all of us.

Despite the commercial tinge that has attached itself to the Christmas season, we think, basically, that most people understand the "Christmas Story" and its religious significance.

True, we were disappointed, along with many others, that the Nativity Scene was not used enough in the many yards and homes that were decorated for the season. Yet we feel convinced that people still understand the meaning of Christmas even if they are not prone to display the religious features in their yards.

Santa Claus took a far more important role in the displays in the homes and yards than the religious theme. That's understandable. The old gentleman lends himself to many variations.

Yet as much as we would have liked to have seen more of the religious part of Christmas portrayed in the home decorations, we were happy that so many local residents participated in the decoration contest.

We hope that next year even more will take part and make Campbell even brighter for the Christmas season.

As Judge John D. Blaine and his assistants pointed out, it was revealing to see how attractive the lighted decorations did make our community. Judge Blaine and his aides devoted a great deal of time to checking over the entries in the contest. They were mighty impressed. We, too, are pleased over the first yard decoration contest that has ever been conducted here.

We think the residents on N. Central Ave. and Carlyn Ave. should be especially commended for their cooperation in placing uniformly lighted trees in their front yards.

As a matter of fact, we think everyone who entered the contest, as well as those who made an effort to decorate their yards even if they did not enter, should be congratulated for their efforts.

We are extremely pleased over the results and are happy to have taken a small part along with the seven merchants in the Campbell Shopping Center in conducting the contest.

We feel it was so worthwhile and so important to our community that in this issue we are devoting much of the front page to pictures of some of the more attractive yards.

As we said, we would have been more pleased if Santa had played a lesser role in the decorations, but all in all we think it was a success.

Campbell cannot have a white Christmas, but it had a bright Christmas due to the efforts of many.

We hope it will be brighter next year.

So from all of us at the Campbell Press to all of you,

SEASON'S GREETINGS!

OUT on the LIMB

with

George Vierhus

There is nothing like the Christmas season.

We make that statement without fear of contradiction.

So much happens during the season that it is difficult to keep up and as much as we all delight in the festivities most of us (except the kids) draw a sigh of relief when the mad rush is over and we settle back to normalcy.

Budd Levenberg who has represented Santa Claus during the Yule season for a number of years can recount many interesting and heartwarming experiences that he has encountered in his role of Santa.

Budd, who represents the Allied Container Corporation during the more mundane months of the year does a good job as Mr. Claus and is much in demand.

—o—

The Campbell fire department cooperated in transporting Santa to various spots in town this season. He rode in style in the cute little 1913 Model T fire engine that the guys in the department, both volunteers and regulars, have painstakingly put into almost perfect running condition. (There are some old-timesrs who claim it is running smoother now than when it was on duty in Campbell many years ago.)

LeRoy Black, street superintendent and also volunteer fireman, was Santa's chauffeur on one trip that almost ended in a disaster for Santa.

Blackie with the bell clanging and the little red wagon purring smoothly, majestically drove Santa to the Towne Pride Mart last Saturday, but then he became so convulsed with laughter that he was hardly able to drive away because of a predicament Santa found himself in.

Santa clambered down from the fire engine and proceeded to make his cheery entrance into the market unconscious of the fact that during his tour on the fire engine his trousers had become loosened from their moorings.

It was only when some woman tapped him on the shoulder at the door that he noticed his pants were half-mast.

Budd's dramatic training came in handy, he just clutched his offending trousers in one hand and marched straight through the store where in the confines of Pete Lico's office he repaired the moorings.

He neither lost his trousers nor his aplomb on the way and was right back on the job as a good Santa would.

"Fortunately I had another pair of trousers underneath or my real face might have been redder than Santa's", Santa Budd reports.

—o—

Fireman Bill Morgan had transported Santa to the Campbell Shopping Center in the same red wagon the week before. Before they arrived at the center Bill drove Santa to the home of a little girl who was just recovering from a serious illness.

The little girl was overjoyed at seeing Santa in her home. She was well enough to go with her mother the next weekend when Santa appeared at the Towne Square merchants.

Budd said fortune smiled on him and he glibly reeled off the little girl's name when he saw her, just as would be expected from Santa but not ordinarily from we mere mortals.

Santa Budd Claus said to see the little girl's face light up was worth all the trouble it takes to get into that suit and whiskers of his.

—o—

We reported last week on Santa Budd's visit to the home of little 4-year old Billie Staggs whom doctors say has but a short time to live. One of the neighbors had fixed up a little elve's hat for Billie as Santa's helper and he needed a bell for its peak. Budd immediately ripped off a button from his Santa's coat which made the little guy's day much brighter.

We know Santa could recite many other experiences that are equally as heartwarming but that one will always hold a top spot for him.

—o—

Postmaster Ellis Litynsky, as is more or less customary, forwarded us some of the mail addressed to Santa Claus this year received at her office. The post office department figures apparently, that newspapers are in a good position to make direct contact with Santa.

Although many of the requests made on Mr. Claus follow the pattern set years ago with dolls, cowboy outfits, skates and bikes still in the running as always, we note a touch of this modern age with emphasis on radar sets and airplanes.

—o—

We were intrigued by several of the notes to Santa:

"Dear Santa, I would like to have a pair of scates and a can of gasoline", reads one. (We can't figure that gasoline.)

Another one made requests for her dogs, her father and her mother, in that order:

". . . and for my dogs, I would like a red rubber bone and gray mouse for Queenie. A yellow rubber bone and red rubber mouse for Tooter. For Nina the bone of a steak with some meat on it. For Grete a lamb chop and a pork chop. For my father I would like a new pipe. You probably know what kind he likes. For my mother I would like a new vase and a frog."

One of the letters came right to the point and gave the costs of the items without any preliminaries. (The 12 articles totalled $84.52)

We know that Santa did not mean looking the notes over before we passed them on to him.

We hope he was able to fulfill all of them.

How did you fare?

Letter to the Editor

ON PARKS AND CM

EDITOR,
The Campbell Press
Sir:—

"Grandma, take me to the park, was all I heard from my grandchildren. I took them to the dam and all through the old gravel pit. A park there would be clean with all the gravel and a natural sand pile for the children. Leave it as natural as possible with the willow trees. It will take years to grow trees to the size the willows are now. The bulldozers get in and knock all the trees out, don't let them.

—o—

I would like to speak my idea of the restrictions of the CM industrial district. The larger the lot the less beauty or well kept they will be. The business man can't afford to keep a garden. For example some of the business places in San Jose, are so neatly kept, just a narrow place in front with shrubs and black top place for trucks in back.

—o—

Please don't stop talking about the eyesore we have on Campbell Ave. and Foote Ave. We have four houses on Foote; it keeps us busy cleaning along the old lumber yard. If things have to be so nice in the next industrial tract why doesn't the man who owns it and is one of our city councilmen keep this place clean and maybe help us put some more roses along the fence. It would look a lot better.

Opera Company Enlarges Program

This year, for the first time, the San Jose Light Opera Company will include students from the San Jose Unified School District in the customary audience at dress rehearsal of "Carousel." at Civic Auditorium.

The innovation is in keeping with the Company's new program for obtaining community sponsorship and support to advance cultural opportunities for the greater San Jose area.

At the same time the Light Opera Company offers talent to community organizations, free of charge, so that memberships can preview the type of talent to be offered at the January "Carousel" performance.

With its new program, the Company especially hopes to obtain support from large companies new to the San Jose area and to revise its by-laws to include interested community leaders on its advisory board.

4-H Club Holds Christmas Dance

Dancing, movies, and refreshments were highlights of the Cambrian 4-H Club's annual Christmas party which was held Friday evening at Farnham School.

Sunny Thornigel, president, was in charge of the party, Dianne Shields was platter spinner and Judy Johnson was chairman of the refreshment committee. Alfred McClintock is the club's leader.

Bright and cheery as a Christmas candle is our sincere wish for you. May you have a very merry Christmas!

NOVEMBER BRIDE AND GROOM . . . Richard Rice assists his bride, the former Orisa Johnson, with the first cut in their elaborate wedding cake. The couple was married November 17 at Trinity Episcopal Church in San Jose.

Richard Rice Weds Orisa Johnson In Double-Ring Ceremony

Trinity Episcopal Church of San Jose was the setting for the November 17 wedding of Orisa Johnson and Richard Rice. The double ring mid-afternoon ceremony was performed by the Rev. William B. Murdock before an altar banked with baskets of white chrysanthemums and tapers.

For her wedding, Orisa wore a ballerina-length princess gown of white brocaded taffeta styled with V neckline and three-quarter sleeves made by herself. In place of a veil she wore a diamon-shaped handmade lace mantilla from Mexico fashioned of medallions matching the brocade motifs of her gown and carried a white orchid centered in a cascade bouquet of white carnations and streamers when given in marriage by her father.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson. 14600 Blossom Hill Road, Los Gatos, and sister of Terry Johnson. She is a graduate of Campbell High School where she was on the staff of the school paper, Campus Echo, in 1955-56 At the present time she is employed at the Burbank branch of the First National Bank.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herm Y. Rice, Sr., of 18920 Sunnybrook Court, Cupertine, and brother of Marilyn Nancy, Elizabeth, and Herman Rice, and Mrs. Neal Kennedy He graduated from Campbell High where he was active in Future Farmers, and is now employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Preceding the bridal party down the aisle were flower girls Debrah and Yvonne Kennedy. nieces of the groom, who wore blue crystalette dresses and carried baskets of pink, blue, and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Terry Johnson, sister of the bride, who wore a flared blue crystalette accented with a white velvet sash over a white taffeta sheath, and a white velvet hat with tiny veil sprinkled with rhinestones. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Marilyn Rice, sister of the groom, Carol Tillman, Nancy Tobin, and Deanna McPhetres. They were gowned identically in blue crystalette with blue velvet sashes over white taffeta sheaths, and wore matching blue velvet veiled hats. All bridal attendants wore rhinestone necklaces, a gift from the bride.

The groom chose Robert Ostermeier to perform the duties of best man and Herman Rice, Jr., Charles Cantoni, Al Maach, and Gary Steindorf to act as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Johnson selected a dress of beige lace over taffeta with brown accessories and a green orchid corsage.

Mrs. Rice, mother of the groom, wore a gray fur cape over a purple velvet sheath and a white orchid corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at Villa Montalvo where the young couple received the felicitations of 250 guests. White chrysanthemums carried out the bridal theme and wreathed the couple's four-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom.

Before the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Rice left on their honeymoon trip to Ensenada, Mexico, and Southern California, the bride donned a grey wool princess dress with red accessories and pinned on a white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are residing at 90 Hunt Way, Campbell.

Camp Fire and Blue Bird News

Luta Camp Fire Girls, sixth graders of Rosemary School, made a trip to Mt. View Wednesday, December 18, to visit their new friend, Dick Miller, who is confined to his home, a victim of polio the past seven years and his nurse, Mrs. "Stormy" Weatherly.

Originally under the wing of the former Luta Horizon Club of Campbell High, all of whom graduated in June, Dick has been "adopted" by the sixth grade Luta group which was organized four years ago by the high school girls.

The 14 Camp Fire girls held a Christmas party in Dick's room and served a variety of cookies they had made for the occasion, punch, and candy after first entertaining him with a program of carols and an Indian dance.

Each girl introduced herself by her christian name, told her Indian name and explained its meaning and then talked about the honors and beads on her bolero.

Those attending were Bonnie Rappe, Bonnie Cahill, Carol Baldwin, Carol Johnson, Kathy West, Karen Davidson, Cynthia Bretta, Joyce Price, Melanie Gadsby, Eugenia Oeser, Martha Bradshaw, Gloria Carpenter, Ingrid Anderson and Merickay Barker.

Adults were Mrs. B. C. Rappe, and Mrs. R. Carpenter, leaders, Mrs. C. Bradshaw, Mrs. P. Oeser, and B. C. Rappe.

Mrs. Richardson Repurchases Shop

Campbell friends of Thelma Richardson, who started a women's specialty apparel show under her name in San Jose in 1938 and sold it in 1953, learned this week that she had repurchased the shop of the former business at 2208 Business Circle in the Burbank area.

She sold the business in 1953 and retired as a housewife, although the business was continued under the trade name of Thelma Richardson's

Newlywed Jim Hieberts Residing In San Jose after Honeymoon Trip

Now residing at 2323 Moorpark Ave., San Jose, are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hiebert who were married November 16 at the Mennonite Brethren Church. The 8 p.m ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Neufeld against a background of white chrysanthemums and tapers.

The bride is the former Carole Wenge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wenge, now of Salinas, and sister of Carl and Edith Wenge. She is a graduate of Campbell High School and is now employed at the Burbank branch of the First National Bank.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Heibert of 1954 Janet Ave., San Jose, and brother of Ray and Kenneth Hiebert. Also a graduate of Campbell High, he is now employed with his father at the Hiebert Desk and Showcase Company of San Jose.

Carole's floor-length wedding gown of tulle, lace and net over satin was styled with a long-sleeved lace bodice and portrait neckline, and a bouffant skirt banded with wide lace inserts. Her fingertip illustion veil was secured to a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias centered with a white orchid when escorted to the altar by her brother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Alice Plett who wore a bouffant ballerina length rose-pink chiffon dress and carried an arm bouquet of white spider and pom-pon chrysanthemums.

Carol Buller was bridesmaid wearing emerald green chiffon and also carrying an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Wenge selected a red knit dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hiebert, mother of the groom, chose a dusty pink taffeta with brown accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Rod Plett performed the duties of best man and Eugene Buller, Wally, Wenge, Ray Hiebert, Richard Claassen and Jerry Davis served as ushers, escorting guests to pews decked with white bows and candles.

Buc, B Fives Bow To San Jose High

Campbell High's Buccaneers started another familiar "third quarter" scoring sprint to pull up to within four poopints of San Jose High Friday but the Bulldogs contained the Buc threat and went on to a 48-42 nonleague win.

The Bucs racked up 16 points in the third period to open the final quarter with a 30-34 deficit but were outscored 14-12 in the last stanza.

Forward Alan Burdick paced the Campbell offense with a 14-point effort for the game but the Bucs could not top a tough Bulldog squad.

Bulldog Al Kogura matched Burdick's 14-point total to lead San Jose to its sixth victory of the season.

In a preliminary to the varsity coontest the Buc Bs dropped a tightly played 33-35 contest to the San Jose lighweights. Gene Ryley was high for the Bs with 13 points.

The Bucs won three matches on pins in toppling defending champion Fremont, winning eight out of 12 matches.

Fastest pin of the day came in the opening 103 lb. match when Don Suhama pinned Fremont's C. Tucci in 1:11.5 to start the Bucs on their way.

Jim Omura in the 145 class and Ken Buran in the 191 division also garnered wins on pins. Buran's pin came in 1:19.0 while Omura pinned in 5:24.0.

Against Hill the Bucs won eight matches on pins, one on a decision, one on forfeit and another on a default to sweep all but one bout.

In preliminaries to the varsity matches, the Buc junior varsity dumped Fremont 30-13 and and stopped Hill 32-0 to grab their third straight win against one loss.

LOW DOWN ON SPORTS

By Marvin Moore

Santa Clara Broncos

The Santa Clara Broncos took Stanford 67-45. It was a pretty close game during hte first 12 minutes of the first half then Santa Clara pulled out 17-12. Stanford came out with a 25.3 point a few minutes later. Frank Sobrero and Jim Taylor got hot to put Santa Clara in an eleven point lead and from there on Stanford didn't have a chance. Stanford came ou with a 25.3 percentage while Santa Clara had 49 per cent.

They took U.S.C. 74-59 in an easy victory and lost to undefeated Texas Tech 68-67—their first loss this seasoon. It was a see-saw game from start to finish with seldom more than a three point separation. Frank Sobrero of S.C. scored 30 points and Myers of Tech scored 29.

They bowed to West Texas State 74-72 in an overtime game. They had previously beaten West Texas State here on December 5th.

Stanford Upsets U.S.F.

Jim Arrillaga with a 16 foot jump shot—was the hero when with three seconds to play he scored to have Stanford beat U.S.F. 50-49. Up to this game U.S.F. had been undefeated this season. Stanford went into the game definitely as the underdog.

Wednesday Arrillaga was picked for the second time as the Northern California's "player of the week".

St. Marys Wins

The St. Mary Gaels, who have gotten off to a poor start this season came through to beat Evansville College 70-68. St. Marys was rated to at least tie for second place this season so they will really have to get on the ball to come up to expectations.

U.C.L.A. went down to Evansville, College 83-76. — Stanford took Denver 77-70. Kansas 58 - California 52—U.S.F. 62—Louisville 55 and San Jose State bowed to Idaho State 59 to 63.

49'ers an All-Pro

The United Press National Football League all-star team picked Y. A. Tittle, quarterback, Billy Wilson, end, tackle Leo Nomellini and Line backer Marv. Matuszah for their annual team Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns became the first rookie to lead the voting of the U.P. poll by receiving 27 votes for fullback and two for halfback out of a possible 31 votes. Brown as a first year professional won the league's rushing title with 942 yards.

Was sorry to see the 49'ers go down in defeat to the Detroit Lions as it would have been so nice to have a California team take the championship. They dominated the first half of the game leading 24 to 7 at the half. What happened after that is hard to say—but the scoreboard ended up 31-27.

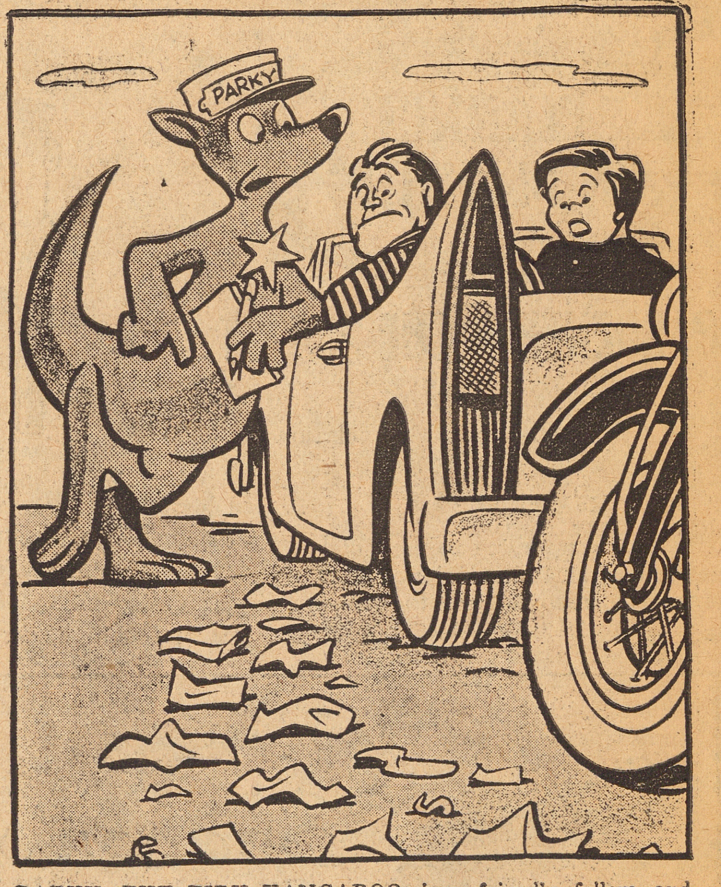
PARKY LOSES PATIENCE



PARKY, THE TIDY KANGAROO, is a friendly fellow, and patient too, but his patience with litterbugs is running out. Perhaps, Parky thinks, the time has come to bear down on the scenery spoilers—to ticket and fine them when they are seen littering highways, beaches and parks. "Most people help to keep California beautiful," Parky says. "It's too bad we must use the law to make some folks understand that their litter belongs in trash cans, not on the roadsides."

Let's deck the tree and deck the hall,

PLANNING ON PLANTING?

GARDENER'S CHECK LIST

By The California Association of Nurserymen

REMINDERS

1. A first spraying to prevent peach leaf curl should be given now. This also applies to nectarines.

2. Red berried plants such as pyracantha, hollies and cotoneaster, are adding a festive note to gardens during the holidays. Next year it could be in your garden. Check your local nursery for fine specimens now.

3. It's not too early to start pruning fruit trees, roses and shrubs. Dormant spraying will help reduce garden pests.

4. A few handfuls of bug pellets will snag those pesty snails and slugs.

How to Grow Poinsettias

Taking care of plants is often just a matter of trying to match ancestral climates and soil conditions as closely as possible. Poinsettias, notes the California Assoociation of Nurserymen, were discovered in Mexico and are easily able to adapt themselves to gardening conditions in much of the state.

The average indoor temperature of 65-70°F. is very suitable for the flowering poinsettias while they are kept indoors during the holidays. Poinsettias need plenty of sunlight, unlike many ordinary house plants which prefer filtered sunlight. While poinsettias are blooming their soil should be kept moist.

As soon as poinsettias have finished blooming, tops should be cut off, to three or four leaf buds. This channels all nourishment into roots and the remainder of the stems insuring great success in the following year. Then plants may be up rooted and set outdoors in fertile, moist soil in full sun, even reflected heat from a building.

Poinsettias will bloom for several years in all areas of California which do not receive an annual killing frost (24°F). Gardeners should never attempt to return poinsettias to the house once they have been planted, but experienced gardeners have had great success with taking cuttings from existing plants and potting them for subsequent seasons.

Gardeners who live in areas which receive a bad frost yearly can save poinsettias for future growth by keeping the plants indoors until Spring, then putting them in a cool place for the midsummer months, bringing plants indoors in August to renew their active growth again.

"Living" Christmas Trees

While a "living" Christmas tree is indoors its requirements are very like those of the ordinary foliage house plant. In order to insure a long life for the tree, and that is the whole purpose of selecting a growing tree in preference to a cut tree, it should receive air, light, moisture and a comfortable temperature. The California Association of Nurserymen cautions home owners against placing the growing tree close to a fireplace or heat outlet as excess warmth can damage part or all of the tree (besides creating a fire hazard).

The air and termepature conditions inside the average home during the winter are suitable for the "living" tree. Its light requirements can be satisfied by artificial light or by filtered light from outdoors. Watering the tubbed tree may be necessary only once or twice a week during the time the plant is indoors as it is only necessary to keep the plant's soil slightly moist.

After the decorations have been removed from the tree it may be placed outdoors in its coontainer or transplanted into the ground. If it is kept in a container, it can be placed anywhere around the landscape and, because it is a hardy conifer, it will thrive.

Transplanting procedure for those "living" trees which are put into the ground after the holidays is no different from the planting procedure for any conifer. However, it is well to remember that the ground must be prepared ahead of the planting. Perhaps the ground preparation could be taken during a pause in the Christmas festivities.

Careful ground preparation includes digging a large hole and adding peat, leaf mold or humus to improve the quality of the soil.

Care of Christmas Plants

Proper care of plants received at Christmas is one of the best ways to say "thank you". Although the rules for care of most plants is simple, the California Assoociation of Nurserymen cautions that the rules must be observed.

African Violets require abundant diffused light with as little direct sunlight as possible, temperatures at about 60-70°F., watering from below and occasional application of a slightly acid fertilizer.

Florists Cyclamen should be watered from below while indoors. Planted in the shade outdoors after the holidays, cyclamen will give almost continual bloom for several years. This type of cyclamen prefers slightly acid soil, so leaf mold should be added to transplanting soil. During the more or less dormant period from June to August or September, cyclamen should be kept slightly on the dry side, but the rest of the year they need moist soil for the prettiest blooms.

Azaleas need air, moisture, light and warth while inside the house. These lovely shrubs may be planted outdoors in moist, fertile soil (mostly peat moss and leaf mold) as soon as possible after the holidays. When outdoors, azaleas need the same items as listed above; air, moisture, light and warmth

Camellas received in bloom at Christmastime may be kept indoors for a short time and may be left in the original containers for an even longer time. While they are in containers, the soil must be kept moist. Camellias must not becrowded in their containers so transplanting should be undertaken as soon as they show signs of outgrowing the cans. Nurserymen will be glad to recommend planting procedures for camellias. They especially need good drainage as they were originally hillside plants.

Foliage plants are usually plants similar to plants which were grown in the shade in jungle type climates. The normal house temperature of about 60-70°F. is just about right for them. in addition, they require light (not direct sunlight) and moist soil. If the plants were professionally potted they should need no additional fertilization until they outgrow their original planters.

Some people follow the mistaken practice of putting their indoor plants outdoors when they seem to be failing. This is highly dangerous, as the shocking change of conditions only compounds whatever difficulty plants may have been suffering. Transplant shock which can occur when plants are taken from indoors and put directly in the ground can be minimized by selecting warm, sunny days and early afternoon as planting times.

It is also well to check with your local nurseryman as to the possible harmful effects of gas heat on plants, as little as one part gas fumes in one million parts of air is toxic to some plants.

Kids to Move into New Blackford School Soon

Blackford School is expected to be ready for occupancy next month, William C. Henley, district superintendent, reports. Wayne Fontes, principal of Hamilton School, has been named to head the new school.

Henley also reports that the working drawings for the additions for both the Blackford and Cypress schools have been forwarded to the state office.

It is also expected that the final okay from the State will soon be forthcoming for the Lynhaven School (Number 14). It is planned to have Lynhaven open next fall.

BANK DIVIDEND

An extra dividend of $2.00 per share was voted to the shareholders of The First National Bank of San Jose by the Board of Directors at their regular December meeting. This brings the total dividends paid for 1957 to $12.00 and it is the third consecutive year that shareholders of First National have received dividends in the amount of $12.00.

ORDINANCE NO. NS-9.75

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, APPLYING INTERIM REGULATIONS TO LAND, PENDING THE ADOPTION OF NEW REGULATIONS FOR SAID AREA AND A STUDY BY THE PLANNING COMMISSION

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1:

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, having heretofore adopted a Zoning Ordinance under which precise zoning regulations may be adopted for any unincorporated areas of said County, and having adopted certain of said regulations for that certain property located in the County of Santa Clara and more particularly described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof by reference, and now being informed that said regulations are in need of study with a view to possible revision in the light of changing conditions of land development in said area and in surrounding areas, and being advised that said study will require considerable time for completion because of the territorial extent of these portions of the County of Santa Clara, the necessity for making maps, careful and thorough analyses of terrain and other facts, and the necessity of devising suitable zoning regulation for said areas, DOES HEREBY FIND that certain regulations of a temporary interim nature are urgently needed in said area to protect the public interest, health, comfort and convenience and to preserve the public peace, safety and welfare, pending the preparation of said plans and regulations, and DOES HEREBY ESTABLISH said area as an Interim Zone, restricting and regulating the land uses therein to those set forth in Secion 2 hereof.

SECTION 2:

Temporary interim regulations applied to the area described in Exhibit "A" herein shall be as follows:

No person, firm or corporation shall hereafter, during the effectiveness of this Ordinance, erect, construct or occupy any building or structure or carry on or enage in any occupation or use except those which are permitted in an "A" (Exclusively Agricultural) Zoning District under the provisions of Ordinance NS-1200, as amended, being the Zoning Ordinance of the County of Santa Clara.

SECTION 3:

The Planning Commission shall undertake the study of this area and report regarding the zoning regulations adopted heretofore for said area and proposed zoning regulations which are recommended for adoption for the said area. Such report shall be submitted within the period of 180 days from the effective date of this Ordinance.

SECTION 4:

It shall be the duty of the Sheriff of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, and of all officers of said County herein and/or otherwise charged by law with the enforcement of this Ordinance to enforce this Ordinance and all the provisions of the same.

Any person, firm or corporation, whether as principal, agent, employee or otherwise, violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or by imprisonment in the County Jail of said County of Santa Clara for a term not exceeding three (3) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of this Ordinance is committed, continued or permitted by such person, firm or corporation, and shall be punishable as herein provided.

SECTION 5:

If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, sub-section, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sub-sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be held invalid.

SECTION 6:

This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption. The facts constituting such urgency are as follows:

The Board of Supervisors has been informed and believes that certain persons, firms and corporations intend to develop large portions of the described area for various and divergent purposes, that such pending development cannot be adequately controlled by existing regulations and that such proposed development, if uncontrolled, will place a hazardous burden on existing water, sewage and storm drainage facilities in the described area which are only minimally adequate for the present agricultural development and will disrupt and destroy the exclusive agricultural character of said area to the detriment of the health, safety and morals of the inhabitants thereof.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of the Couny of Santa Clara, State of California, this 16th day of DECEMBER, 1957, by the followinng vote:

AYES: Supervisors, Della Maggiore, Hubbard, Levin, Slaght
